

CHANNEL ISLANDS INTERNATIONAL PENSIONS CONFERENCE

Peter Sayers

Head of International Business Development

Peter is Head of International Business Development, having responsibility for promoting Strabens Hall's wealth planning services to clients and their professional advisers in the key offshore jurisdictions, including the Channel Islands, Switzerland, Monaco and Bermuda.

Peter qualified as a financial adviser in Jersey in 1995 and has always focused on advising clients with an international profile, with a particular focus on international pension planning and high value life assurance solutions. Prior to joining Strabens Hall, Peter was a partner in a multi-disciplinary wealth management business with offices in Jersey, Switzerland and Cyprus. He subsequently established a specialist consultancy practice in Jersey to provide wealth planning services to private banks, family offices and wealth managers.

Peter splits his time between Jersey and London and travels extensively in Europe and further afield. In his spare time, Peter enjoys outdoor activities with his three children, skiing, cycling and any activity connected to the mountains.
